Transcending the New Woman: Multiethnic Narratives in the Progressive Era; Native Speakers: Ella Del... Chang (2007) discusses the challenges of autoethnography being self-indulgent, and focussed on the narrative and therefore lacking in academic analysis. In regard to the challenge of lacking analysis within auto-ethnography, three voices were birthed through previous work. These voices are now the voices in which the Pasifika girl gets culture (Pelias, 2003). Read more.
