Before the Camden Cutoff, to reach Camden Station from the west, trains followed a winding route through what is now Mt. Clare Yard, over the Carrollton Viaduct, then a sharp right onto the Locust Point Branch, then a left at Bailey's Wye. In addition to the inefficiencies of the winding route, soon the B&O discovered traffic was so heavy the double-tracked Carrollton Viaduct was a bottleneck. The brick structure at the center is the B&O Warehouse at Camden Yards. To the right is the former PSINet Stadium, home of Baltimore Ravens football. Ahead the yard necks down to a grade crossing with Hollins Ferry Road. Link: 1995. CSX 8446. All tours are by appointment only. Call 24 x 7 to schedule a tour! View Availability. Let us help!
