The main part of the church was decorated by three different painters in the 14th century. They represent the Paleologan style developed in Constantinople and the local tradition of Byzantine painting as it developed in Cyprus under the influence of Orthodox Christians from Syria and Palestine. It is one of the ten painted churches of Troodos on the World Heritage List.

http://whc.unesco.org/en/list/351. #ShareCulture #ShareOurHeritage #CyprusWorldHeritage #visitcyprus #departmentofantiquities.

The Department of Antiquities, within the framework of the International Day for Monuments and Sites, will celebrate the connection between our Complex past and Diverse future, by organizing an online concert which will be presented on Friday, April 16, 2021 at 19:00 via the social media accounts of the Department of Antiquities (YouTube and Facebook).