"Leaving on a Jet Plane" is a song written by John Denver in 1966 and most famously recorded by Peter, Paul and Mary. The original title of the song was "Babe, I Hate to Go", as featured on his 1966 studio album John Denver Sings, but Denver's then producer Milt Okun convinced him to change the title. Peter, Paul and Mary recorded the song for their 1967 studio album, Album 1700, and Warner Bros.- Seven Arts released it as a single in 1969. 'Cause I'm leaving on a jet plane Don't know when I'll be back again Oh, babe, I hate to go. There's so many times I've let you down So many times I've played around I tell you now they don't mean a thing Every place I go I'll think of you Every song I sing I'll sing for you When I come back, I'll bring your wedding ring So kiss me and smile for me Tell me that you'll wait for me Hold me like you'll never let me go 'Cause I'm leaving on a jet plane Don't know when I'll be back again Oh, babe, I hate to go. Now the time has come to leave you One more time let me kiss you Then close your eyes, Wiki Targeted (Entertainment). Do you like this video? Play Sound. Leaving on a Jet Plane by John Denver is featured in Pilot, the first episode of Season One. It is sung by Will. Will sings this song in the auditorium when he decides to leave McKinley in order to proceed an accounting career to be able to care better for Terri and the child she pretended to be pregnant with. Emma is making love notes in her yearbook around pictures of Will after she finds out he is leaving.
