For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse. 2 Timothy 3:16 ESV / 38 helpful votes.

Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power.

God's willingness to reveal Himself to Moses and the people of ancient Israel is especially important to understand. “So the Lord spoke to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend” (Exodus 33:11 Exodus 33:11And the LORD spoke to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. And he turned again into the camp: but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.Â"

More absolute proof on the way. God has promised that the time is coming—at a time most people don't expect—when the whole world will witness the same type of miraculous evidence of His existence that He displayed in ancient Egypt. This coming intervention in world affairs will be unmistakable. Excerpt from "How Has God Revealed Himself through Nature? 4 Amazing Ways."

Do you love podcasts? In The Bible Never Said That, we unpack some of the most popular “spiritual statements” that have made their way into popular culture and the church, even though they are not theologically sound. Together, we'll hold them up to the Bible to see what God's Word really has to say to us.Originally published March 04, 2021. Christianity/Devotionals/Your Daily Bible Verse/2 Simple Ways God Reveals Himself (Romans 1:20) - Your Daily Bible Verse - March 4.