Christmas in the Holy Land: Christmas Customs in the Holy Land. Since Christmas celebrations are held on different days here, Bethlehem sees a horde of separate services being held in the respective churches of Catholics, Protestants, Greeks, Syrians and Armenians. The common Christmas meal here comprises of turkey cooked with pepper, cinnamon, nutmeg and stuffed with rice along with meat, pine nuts and almonds.